

Privacy and Cookie Policy

Welcome to the Abbey Farm Dressage cookie and privacy policy. We're committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This privacy and cookie policy tells you how Abbey Farm Dressage collect and use your personal information when you visit our website and interact with us.

If you have any questions on this policy, or would like further information, please contact us on 01234 888810 or via email arichter@btinternet.com

You may provide us with information by filling in our contact and enquiry form on our website or by corresponding with us by phone, post or email. If you contact us, we may keep a record of that correspondence.

Should you find any inaccuracies in your information please contact us via the contact information given on this page and on our website and we will correct it or delete it promptly. You can do the following at any time by contacting us:

- See what data we have about you, if any
- Change/correct any data we have about you
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data
- Have us delete any data we have about you

Collecting and sharing your information

We may use information you provide to us for our internal record keeping or to tell you about events that we think are relevant to you. We will not sell this information to outside organisations. We will not share your information with any third party outside of our organization.

Security best practices

We're committed to ensuring that your information is secure. We will take the steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this policy. You should be aware that transmission of information via the internet is not entirely secure and we cannot guarantee the security of any data you transmit to the Abbey Farm Dressage website via the internet.

Cookies

Cookies are small files that are used to store information when a user visits a website. They are often used to recognize return users and remember information about them, such as their browsing activity, to make finding and using a website quicker.

We do not use cookies to give us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the information you choose to share with us.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser settings to decline cookies if you prefer. However, this may prevent you in using our website fully.
